Mall Security Manager Arrested for Thefts at Mall

On Monday, April 22, 2013 Troy Police Officers were dispatched to Oakland Mall on a report of Breaking and Entering of Manic Shoes (13-12142). Officers were met by the representative of the business who reported approximately $300 was missing from a locked cash register. When officers were reviewing the in-store video along with Oakland Mall Security, a possible perpetrator was observed on camera going to, and entering the register. The Oakland Mall Security Officer immediately recognized the suspect as an Oakland Mall Security Manager. Troy Police Investigators then interviewed the suspect who made admissions to the theft at Manic along with four other thefts which occurred at Oakland Mall and Plaza since January 7, 2013. The suspect – Jeffrey Douglas Maul, age 36 from Troy was subsequently arrested for the theft.

Maul was arraigned before Magistrate Clement Waldmann of the 52-4 District Court in Troy on April 24, 2013 on following charges:

- Breaking & Entering a Building: 10 year Felony (Bosco's Barber Shop)
- Larceny in a Building: 4 year Felony (Bosco's Barber Shop)
- Larceny in a Building: 4 year Felony (President Tuxedo)
- Larceny in a Building: 4 year Felony (Orange Julius)
- Larceny in a Building: 4 year Felony (Manic Shoes)

Bond was set at $15,000 (personal bond) with next court date of April 30, 2013 at 52-4 District Court before Judge Kirsten Hartig
